Examples of past presentations:

DEMYSTIFYING THE COLLEGE EXPERIENCE

This workshop will address many of the myths associated with attending college. The presenters will provide a behind the scenes look at what it really takes to attain a degree from a 4-year institution and to get the best return on your investment. They will include personal testimonies as first-generation, low-income students of color who have had two very unique experiences. Students will leave this workshop with a refined outlook on what it is they wish to gain from attending a four year university.

HEALTHCARE CAREERS

Do you like to help people? Do you want a stable career that pays well? Maybe you are dreaming of becoming a medical assistant, nurse, or doctor but you think you're not smart enough? We were all scared too! In this session, you will hear from a panel of health care professionals, including a medical assistant, a nurse and a doctor, about how we made our dreams come true and what our careers are like today!

STILL CONFUSED ABOUT YOUR PATH--THAT'S OK!

Rene thought she wanted to be a lawyer, but shifted her thought process after getting her degree. In this workshop, she will teach you how to parlay your college education into the right career even if it wasn't your original plan. She will also highlight the benefits of loving what you do.

WHEN I GROW UP, I WANT TO BE...?

You have skills! But, who are you and how do you fit in the world? This workshop will explore career and major options. This will be an interactive workshop, so be prepared to move around. You will leave with an idea of how you can impact the world with your unique set of skills.

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION STRATEGIES

Listening skills are an essential aspect of effective communication; therefore it is important for one to strive to master this skill. The aim of this workshop is to explore specific strategies that will help you and your peers manage conflict through healthy and respectful communication. This is an interactive workshop; come ready to learn about active listening and discuss tools for sharing your perspective.
